

Consultant-Led Hospital Team of the Year Award 2017

This Award will be given to the hospital team that demonstrates the best combination of team spirit and enhancement of patient care at all levels. The judges will be looking for those who encourage and support each other and those who have collectively demonstrated innovation and forward thinking.

The key to any successful hospital department is team work and this award recognises the power and potential of a focused and unified approach to health care initiatives. Teams can be based within one organisation or spread over multiple organisations; but they must comprise individuals working towards the same objective or goal and Consultant-led.

JUDGES WILL BE LOOKING FOR:

- > How the team has demonstrated their ability to deliver clear benefits to patients; and/or staff members through working together efficiently and effectively
- > How the team has worked together to achieve its objectives over the past twelve months
- > Projects that the team has successfully managed which demonstrate excellence in quality, innovation, productivity and prevention
- > A clear display of the principles underpinning their success as a team

All entries will be judged by an independent panel of experts and the winners will be announced at the Hospital Professional Awards 2017 on Saturday, September 16th in the Clayton Hotel, Dublin.
