

Hospital Pharmacy Team of the Year Award 2017

There are many key elements to building a productive team, including communication and cooperation. Good communication means everyone is aware of their own responsibilities and what the team's goals are whilst co-operation leads to increased productivity. A team that excels is the one who, together, endlessly work to improve their efforts. They comprehend the importance of on-going improvements and how this helps support the overall objectives of the department.

The Award is open to any hospital pharmacy team with a minimum of three team members.

JUDGES WILL BE LOOKING FOR:

- Judges will want to see effective communication skills with both staff and customers
- Demonstration of a commitment to mentoring or other leadership activities
- Operation within their own pharmacy liaising with key staff members and management and developing key communication skills
